Hi, I'm Lynn Cooper. I am 22 years old.
 I live with my boyfriend in Glasgow, a lively city in Scotland.
 Last year I started to work in an office, but that was boring. I was very unhappy.
 One day my friend Sue asked me to help in her restaurant. It's a busy place near a shopping centre. Many families come here because we have a special menu.
 You can find many meals for kids.
 They like to order fish fingers, chips, spaghetti, pancakes, burgers or pizza.
 And – they always get a free ice cream when they have finished their meal.

It's fun to work here! I love my job!
